

Rocky Mountain Map Society

The Rocky Mountain Map Society is a non-profit organization dedicated to the study and appreciation of maps and other items of cartographic interest. The Society was formed in 1991 and is based in Denver, Colorado.

Rocky Mountain Map Society's Annual Map Month: "Maps and War" – May 2018

Denver Public Library

All lectures at 5:30 PM

Denver Public Library,
Conference Room B2.

These programs are free and open to the community.

The Denver Public Library's Western History Department will have an exhibit on the fifth floor, featuring maps of war including its artifacts from the Tenth Mountain Division..

Dates: Tuesdays, May 1, 8, 15, and 22, 2018

Time: Lecture Series at 5:30 PM

Location: Denver Public Library, Room B2

Guest Speakers:

- May 1: Chris Lane, owner of the Philadelphia Print Shop West, Denver – "Mapping the French and Indian War"
- May 8: Susan Schulten, Professor of the History Department at University of Denver – "The Civil War through Maps"
- May 15: Greg Miller, Science and Technology Journalist – "Cold War Cartography"
- May 22: David Little, Secretary of the Tenth Mountain Division Foundation – "Tenth Mountain Division mapping during World War II"

